CONTEST DETAILS –

Topic: Choose your own theme related to some aspect of your school (i.e. community service, academic excellence, etc.). Provide in-depth coverage of the theme selected to meet your school's specific needs.

Publications: Current year Newspaper, Yearbook

Eligibility: Entries must be the work of students. Each publication may enter only once.

Fee: Free to CHSPA members, $15 for non-members.

Submission: Send newspaper issue with each related item clearly marked in red. Send yearbook page(s) [photocopies or page printouts okay] with each related item clearly marked in red. Staple the entry form to the front of each submission. Submissions may be made via CD. Any entries submitted on CD must use PDF and/or MS Word files.

Additional Requirements: Each entry must include a brief statement explaining how items on each page are related to the selected theme.

For information on the Maestro Concept check Buck Ryan's textbook entitled "The Editor's Toolbox." A helpful article and PowerPoint can also be found on the Franklin College Web site. Links to both of these resources can be found on the CHSPA Web site under Resources > Helpful Links, look for Maestro Concept.
