

Medal of Merit

About this award

Deadline:
Postmark December 1

This award honors individuals who dedicate time, effort and specialized skills as publication advisers and proudly recognizes those who have made a positive difference in the scholastic journalism community. These unique individuals denote consistency, dependability and inspiration, are role models for their students and show pride in their school and community. They add honor to the profession of journalism education, make their colleagues proud to call them master educators and make a difference for past, present and future journalists.

Criteria:

- ◆ Active publication adviser for a minimum of 20 years, at least 8 years in Colorado
- ◆ Member of CHSPA
- ◆ Contributions over extended period of time have been of an extraordinary nature

Process:

- ◆ Selection will follow a 2-step process:
 1. Submission of Nomination Form by one or more persons
 2. Completion, by nominee, of Accomplishment Form
- ◆ Any number of nominees will be considered but no more than two nominees will be selected to receive the award each year.
- ◆ Nominees will only be considered in the year they are nominated
- ◆ Advisers may be nominated an unlimited number of times.

Medals of Merit will be awarded at a date and time determined by the CHSPA Board
